

Sixth Annual

Duke/Northwestern/Texas IO Theory Conference

Saturday & Sunday, October 6 & October 7

Duke University, Durham NC

The Departments of Economics and Business Schools at Duke and UT-Austin, and the Center for the Study of Industrial Organization (CSIO) at Northwestern University announce the sixth in a series of annual jointly-sponsored conferences focusing primarily on theoretical work in industrial organization. The conference is intended to serve as a forum for presentation and discussion of current research on theoretical industrial organization, with a special emphasis on work by younger scholars.

The conference will be held this year at Duke University starting the morning of Saturday, October 6 and ending mid-day on Sunday, October 7, 2007.

If you have a paper that you would like to present, please send a pdf file of the paper or abstract by email to creec006@duke.edu by July 16, 2007. The program will be selected and paper presenters notified by August 13, 2007. Travel funds are available for those on the program.

Please notify us by August 20, 2007 at creec006@duke.edu if you plan on attending the conference, so that we may plan on the correct number of attendees. (We will be providing a conference lunch and dinner for all attendees on Saturday, October 6.) We have reserved a block of rooms at the Washington Duke Inn in Durham. Please contact us before trying to make a reservation at the hotel so that we can arrange the billing.

The Conference will be held at the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University in Durham, which is a short walk from the hotel.
