

Third Annual
Duke/Northwestern/Texas IO Theory Conference
Saturday & Sunday October 2-3
Duke University, Durham NC

The Departments of Economics and Business Schools at Duke and UT-Austin, and the Center for the Study of Industrial Organization (CSIO) at Northwestern University announce the third in a series of annual jointly sponsored conferences focusing on theoretical work in industrial organization. This is the third year for the conference and the first time Duke has hosted. The conference is intended to serve as a forum for presentation and discussion of current research in theoretical industrial organization, with a special emphasis on work by younger scholars.

The conference will be held this year at Duke University starting the morning of Saturday October 2 and ending mid-day on Sunday October 3, 2004.

If you have a paper that you would like to present, please send a pdf file of the paper or abstract by email to ah4@mail.duke.edu by July 1, 2004. The program will be selected and paper presenters notified by August 1, 2004. Travel funds are available for those on the program.

We have reserved a block of rooms at the R.D. Thomas Center on the Duke campus in Durham for the nights of Friday October 1 and Saturday October 2. To make a reservation, contact the front desk of the hotel directly at 919-660-6400. Tell them that you are making a reservation for the "Industrial Organization Conference." The Conference will be held at the Thomas Center, which is adjacent to the Fuqua School of Business at Duke.

Please notify us by August 8 at ah4@mail.duke.edu if you plan on attending, so that we may plan on the correct number of attendees. (We will be providing a conference lunch and dinner for all attendees on Saturday, October 2).

We very much hope to see you at the conference.
