new era in the form of gold is considered gaining momentum.

Gold prices break above this week last week, unable to crack the support of 1265 continued the upward outputs. Lagged behind last week's upward trend in 1295, but was limited to these outputs. (Recalled last week rose to the level of 1299) In general, the medium-term downward pressure on gold will continue to look at the mentioned where you should continue until only a short-term response sorgulamaktaydık alışlarının. Are two critical barrier in front of us. The first of them, and now that the 61.8% Fibonacci correction level, which is the one closest to the barrier 1,303.30. Secondly, and most importantly, the Fibonacci 50% "of the correction points is determined as the level of 1336.25.

Technically, gold prices look at the Fibonacci 50% "return at 1,336.25 which is the realization of the possibility of correction to be strong in the short term with the price of gold will carry this out is not any underlying data. Therefore, the 61.8% Fibonacci correction point of gold even did not exceed the level of 1303.30. For this reason, the developments in the markets this week, and will be announced in the macro-economic indicators, the decision will constitute purchase gold prices will react. Looking at the short-term price of gold is now at the level of 1290 in 1280 and 1265 for the important points of support.

Broken and this is a kind of support, especially in 1265 and each time it was the support point rise on the day. In this context, in 1265, and wants to continue the upward pressure on the support of these outputs would want to go up to say 1300.

1265 Pivot
Support 1280-1265-1247
Resistance 1303,30-1318,85-1336,25
