Weekly Field Guides
Each week, Quartz takes a deep dive into the companies, people, and phenomena defining the global economy. Field guide topics range from The birth of geriatric cool to China’s changing influence and What Gen Z wants.
Member-only newsletters

Every Monday morning we’ll send you a TLDR of our latest field guide to help you save time and get smarter faster. On Thursday, our editors wrap up the best of Quartz coverage on a specific topic to take you into the weekend.

Digital events from Quartz at Work

Get early invites—and access to playbacks and recaps—for bi-monthly virtual events that explore the challenges of a modern-day worker. Topics range from remote teams to the science of decision-making and how to build an antiracist company.

Presentations

Dive into topical presentations that you can take to your next meeting and use to guide your decision making. Learn how to ace your next online presentation, how to be more productive, and how to understand the future of cloud computing, among other topics.
